Copper and Silver Strip Corrosion Coupons Ready for Immediate Use

The copper used in the D130 / IP154 copper corrosion strips meets material specifications set by Committee D02.05.0C on Color and Reactivity. Strips are polished as specified in the respective method and packaged in individual envelopes then placed in jars and sealed in an inert atmosphere ready for immediate use. The silver coupons are prepared as specified in ASTM D7671 the new test method that replaces the Modified D130 Silver Corrosion test specified in ASTM D4814 Specification of Motor Gasoline, also packaged in individual envelopes then placed in jars and sealed in an inert atmosphere ready for immediate use. Please note that the price of the silver coupons is dependent on the very volatile silver market and may change as current supplies of silver are depleted.
